

C.H.U. de Charleroi

Department of Pediatrics-Neonatology

7th INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM
OF ETHICS IN THE NEONATE
AND THE CHILD

Thursday 23rd of May 2019
from 9.30am to 6.30pm

VIDEO
INTERVIEWS
OF PARENTS

“FETAL ABNORMALITY: FROM “TOP” TO BOTTOM”

Hôpital Civil Marie Curie

Auditoire (rez-de-chaussée)
Chaussée de Bruxelles 140
6042 Lodelinsart

INFORMATIONS :

☎ 071/92.13.23
genevieve.claes@chu-charleroi.be

ISPPC
Intercommunale de Santé Publique du Pays de Charleroi

www.chu-charleroi.be

Secrétariat médical en Pédiatrie, Cs 1

Mme Geneviève Claes

Hôpital Civil Marie Curie

Chaussée de Bruxelles, 140

B - 6042 Lodelinsart

Belgium - BE

7th INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM OF ETHICS IN THE NEONATE AND THE CHILD

“FETAL ABNORMALITY: FROM “TOP” TO BOTTOM”

MODERATOR : Eric BOEVER, journalist, RTBF

10.00 Introduction

Dr Eric CAVATORTA, head of NICU, CHU de Charleroi

From antenatal diagnosis to singular decision

Pr Catherine DONNER, head of the Fetal Medicine Unit, ULB-Erasme hospital, Bruxelles

Place of the paediatrician in the antenatal appraisal of a severe fetal anomaly

Pr Jean-François MAGNY, head of the Pediatric and Neonatal Intensive Care Unit, member of the Pluridisciplinary Center of Prenatal Diagnosis, CHU Necker Enfants Malades, Paris

The challenges of modern fetal medicine: facing the anomaly, who does decide?

Pr Luc ROEGIERS, doctor in bioethics, perinatal pedopsychiatrist, Obstetrics Unit, Cliniques Universitaires Saint-Luc (UCL), Bruxelles

13.00 to 14.00 LUNCH

Late termination, perinatal palliative care and neonatal euthanasia: the Netherlands' experience.

Pr Eva PAJKRT, head of the Fetal Medicine Unit, Amsterdam Universitair Medische Centra, University of Amsterdam, chair of the Review commission late pregnancy termination and termination of life of newborns Termination, choice, control, distress... the philosopher's point of view.

Pr Michel DUPUIS, philosopher, professor at UCL, Bruxelles, member of the Belgian Advisory Committee on Bioethics, scientific director of the GEFERS, Paris

Palliative care project at birth

Dr Pierre BÉTRÉMIEUX, neonatologist, CHU de Rennes, coordinator of « The palliative approach in perinatal medicine », Paris; member of the Groupe de Réflexion sur les Aspects Éthiques de la Périnatalogie (GRAEP), ethical committee of the French Society of Neonatology.

Termination of pregnancy in Belgium : the legal challenge.

Me Sylvie TACK, lawyer, professor in Health Law, Universiteit Antwerpen and Universiteit Gent

18.00 END OF THE SESSION

Accreditation in Ethics and Economics pending

Simultaneous translation french-english
Informations : +32(0)71/92 13 23
genevieve.claes@chu-charleroi.be

Registration form for the symposium of May 23, 2019 Fetal abnormality: from “top” to bottom

Madam – Sir – Doctor :

Name : .....

First name : .....

Name of the institution : .....

Email : .....

Contribution to the costs of 100 € for doctors and of 30 € for non-physician health professional

Payment to ISPPC bank account : BE29 0682 2387 0064

With communication « Name + symposium of ethics 23rd of May 2019 »

Deadline for registration and payment of fees : May 09, 2019

To send by mail or by email to Mrs Claes : genevieve.claes@chu-charleroi.be

